

Summer Program with Kids at Bo American Corner
August 28, 2012

This was a summer program. The Film, "High School Musical" was shown to young kids, aged 5-16 approximately, from an orphanage in Bo. The film was followed by a literary exercise where the kids wrote about their dreams and what they want to be in the future. Each kid shared his/her dream publicly with the group. Post works with the American Corner in Bo to educate young people to develop themselves and build up a strong society.

Group work

PAO [left] watching the movie with kids

IRC Director leading the Q&A

One of the pupils reading her contribution

Group of students watching the movie

IRC Director Taylor distributing books